Recognizing a Disrespectful Workplace

- Some inappropriate behaviors not construed as violation of policy
- Some inappropriate behaviors are clearly recognizable as violations of policies and may violate laws

Small ongoing inappropriate behaviors can escalate over time
It is incumbent upon you to read and understand the policies that are associated with your position (or role).

http://policy.uconn.edu
Code of Conduct
Office of Audit, Compliance & Ethics

- Basic standards of workplace behavior
- Public statement of the University’s commitment to the highest standards of integrity
- All employees share responsibility for keeping the University in full compliance with all laws, regulations and policies
- Annual Mandated Training

http://audit.uconn.edu/doc/codeofconduct.pdf
State Code of Ethics for Public Officials

- Applies to each of us as state employees
- The Office of State Ethics’ online course can be found here: http://www.ct.gov/ethics/cwp/view.asp?a=4130&q=484670&ethicsNav=
- Part of the Connecticut General Statutes
- Intended to prevent individuals from using their public position for personal financial benefit
- Violations can (and have) lead to fines and penalties

Conflicts of Interest

- Gifts
- Financial Benefit (Self/Family/Business)
- Political Activity
- Outside Employment
- Appearance Fees/Honorarium
- Post State Employment
PUBLIC vs. PRIVATE INFORMATION

Connecticut Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)
- Applies to: Public Records (really ALL University records)
- Assume anything you create, use, review is public
- Send requests for records to Paul McCarthy, University Communications immediately

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- Applies to: Records (or information in records) about students
- Provides certain rights to students regarding their records, and obligates University employees to secure these records and keep their contents confidential
Non-Retaliation Policy

It is prohibited to retaliate against someone who reports a concern in good faith to the appropriate individuals of offices.

Contact the Office of Audit, Compliance & Ethics (OACE) to report any activities that you feel may be retaliatory.

Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments

Policy: Affirmative Action & Equal Employment Opportunity

- UConn is an equal employment opportunity & affirmative action employer
- Our policy is to comply with all laws & regulations that prohibit employment discrimination
  - Employment search process is strictly monitored to ensure compliance
- Equal employment opportunity (EEO) means nondiscrimination
- All services and programs are to be provided in a fair and impartial manner
- Annual State and Federal Affirmative Action Plan
Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments
Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Interpersonal Violence

- Prohibits discrimination, harassment and related forms of interpersonal violence in the working and learning environments
- University employees must report any incidents of sexual assault, intimate partner violence, or stalking involving students immediately to OIE
- Managers must report any incidents of discrimination, harassment or related interpersonal violence, including inappropriate amorous relationships, to OIE
  - Failure to report known incidents is a policy violation as serious as the original discriminatory act
- Provides specific guidance regarding amorous relationships in the instructional and employment contexts
  - “Amorous relationships” under the policy means an intimate, sexual, and/or any other type of amorous proposal, encounter or relationship, whether casual or serious, short-term or long term
- All forms of non-consensual sexual contact prohibited
Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments

Amorous Relationships-Instructional and Employment Contexts

- Instructional Context
  - Faculty/staff relationships with undergraduate students are prohibited.
  - Faculty/staff relationships with graduate students are prohibited if the graduate student is actually under that individual’s authority (authority includes teaching; formal mentoring or advising; supervision of research and employment of a student; exercising substantial responsibility for grades, honors, or degrees; and involvement in disciplinary action related to the student).

- Employment Context
  - Faculty/staff relationships with employees currently under their supervision are prohibited.

- Existing Romantic Relationships
  - Relationships that existed prior to joining the University must be disclosed to OIE and/or Labor Relations by the person in a position of authority before accepting a new supervisory role.
  - Relationships that develop that are in violation of the policy must be disclosed immediately by the person in a position of authority.
Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments

Title IX

www.titleix.uconn.edu

• When students are sexually harassed or assaulted in the learning environment, a college or university will be liable if a University employee with authority to address the harassment and institute corrective measures on the school’s behalf-receives actual notice of, and is deliberately indifferent to, the harassment or assault.

• The U.S. Department of Education’s Office of Civil Rights extends the obligation to respond beyond those who actually have authority to address the harassment, to any individual “who a student could reasonably believe has this authority or responsibility” to help.
Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments
Sexual Assault, Intimate Partner Violence and Stalking

- Approved by the Board of Trustees and effective January 1, 2016, the Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment and Related Interpersonal Violence:
  - Protects campus safety and ensures victims receive full range of University support and reporting options
  - Requires all employees who witness or receive a report of sexual assault, intimate partner violence and/or stalking to contact OIE as soon as possible
    - If you witness any crime, call the police
  - Private vs. confidential victim conversations
  - www.titleix.uconn.edu
Commitment to Diverse & Inclusive Learning and Working Environments

Policy Statement: People with Disabilities

- The University of Connecticut is committed to achieving equal education and employment opportunity and full participation for people with disabilities
- A qualified person with a disability must be ensured the same access to programs, opportunities, and activities at the University as all others
- Federal law (update to §503) requires UConn to request that employees self-identify any disability
- Information is given to OIE for reporting purposes only. It is not placed with employees’ medical or personnel files.

Employee Accommodations

• The University will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical and/or mental limitation(s) of otherwise qualified applicants and employees with disabilities as defined by state and federal law.

• Reasonable accommodation is any change or adjustment to a job or work environment that permits a qualified applicant or employee with a disability to participate in the job application process, to perform the essential functions of a job, or to enjoy benefits and privileges of employment equal to those enjoyed by employees without disabilities.

• In some instances (when undue hardship exists), the University may be unable to make certain accommodations.

• Questions or a Request for Reasonable Accommodations should be directed to the Human Resources' ADA Case Manager, Vicki Fry at 860-486-2036 or vicki.fry@uconn.edu

Selected Policies: Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting

The Law - Pursuant to State Law, virtually all employees (excluding student employees) of Connecticut Higher Education Institutions are mandatory reporters of child abuse and neglect.

Your Role - If you know or suspect that an individual under the age of 18 has been abused or neglected, you have a legal obligation to report this directly to the Department of Children and Families or law enforcement.

Please Note: If you witness child abuse or if there is an imminent or ongoing threat to an individual or the community, immediately call 911. Incidents of sexual assault to a child must also be reported to OIE as soon as possible.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES
For additional guidance on child abuse reporting requirements, please refer to the DCF website (http://www.ct.gov/dcf/cwp/view.asp?a=2556&Q=314384).

Further questions may be directed to the University’s Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) at (860) 486-2943, or the Minor Protection Coordinator at (860) 486-5682.

<sup>1</sup> In the Enhanced plan, be sure to use an in-network dentist to ensure 100% coverage; with out-of-network dentists, you will be subject to balance billing if your dentist charges more than the maximum allowable charge

<sup>2</sup> If enrolled in HEP, frequency limits and cost share are applicable; however, periodontal maintenance and periodontal root scaling & planning do not apply to the annual $500 maximum

<sup>4</sup> While not covered, you will get the discounted rate on these services if you visit a network dentist, unless prohibited by state law
